HIGHLAND WILDLIFE PARK

Set in the stunning Cairngorms National Park, the park is open seven days a week and offers breathtaking views. You will have the chance to see a range of native animals like the Scottish wildcat, as well as species from around the world including snow leopards, Amur tigers, Japanese macaques and Scotland's only polar bears.

The Royal Zoological Society of Scotland (RZSS) are delighted to be opening an enhanced visitor experience at the park in 2024. Discover how wildlife in Scotland has evolved with the ever-changing landscape and the connections that bring people, places and animals together.
